

DEPARTMENT OF INSTRUCTIONAL SYSTEMS AND WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Box 9730

MISSISSIPPI STATE, MISSISSIPPI 39762-9730

TELEPHONE: 662-325-2281 FAX: 662-325-7599

February 25, 2004

Dr. Joe Adams, Research Associate
John C. Stennis Institute of Government
Depot Building
P. O. Box LV
Mississippi State, MS 39762

Dear Joe:

Thanks so much for your guest appearance in EDA 8383 Ethical Decision Making in Educational Administration on Friday night, February 6, 2004.

I've had many positive comments from students about your lecture and discussion of Alasdair McIntyre's notion of the genealogical version of moral inquiry based on works of Frederick Nietzsche. In fact, one student has asked if you could serve on his doctoral committee.

You have been of immense help to me in preparing for this class by way of interacting with me about ethical concepts and providing some invaluable books and materials, especially those on Alasdair McIntyre.

Thanks for taking the time to share your knowledge and resources with us and for giving us that excellent presentation on February 6. It's a pleasure to have you as a colleague. Here's hoping our Ph.D. program in Community College Leadership will continue to interest you and attract your further participation.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Dan Stumpf". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Arthur D. Stumpf, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor, Community College Leadership

Cc Dr. Ed Davis, Coordinator
Community College Leadership

Dr. Anthony Olinzock, Department Head
Instructional Systems, Leadership, and Workforce Development

Dr. Martin W. Wiseman, Director
John C. Stennis Institute of Government

Undergraduate Degree Programs

Industrial Technology • Office Systems and Technology • Technology Teacher Education • Trade and Technical Studies

Graduate Degree Programs

M.S. in Instructional Technology • M.S. in Technology • M.S. in Workforce Education Leadership
Ed.S. in Technology • Ed.D. in Technology • Ph.D. in Technology